Mr. Dulles (Cont'd.)

25X1 h. Outlined his proposed plan for utilizing the services [redacted]
25X1 in the future and asked DDP to discuss this matter with [redacted]

25X1 i. Stated he had asked AD/SI for recommendations [redacted]
25X1 [redacted] request that CIA coordinate [redacted]
25X1 Mr. Wisner suggested that [redacted] and [redacted] be brought into 25X1 this picture and Mr. Dulles noted that before a final reply was given to 25X1 [redacted] request, it probably should be cleared by the IAC.

25X1 j. Asked DDP to obtain Col. Edwards' views on the possibility of our employing [redacted]

Mr. Wisner:

25X1 a. Reported that the memorandum to the A/DCI in regard to press
25X1 [redacted]

25X1 b. Noted a cable [redacted]
25X1 regard to [redacted] interest in Third Force elements and stated [redacted]
25X1 also raised this matter. Mr. Wisner went on to say that [redacted] had been advised 25X1 that CIA was "interested" in the "Third Force" from the intelligence angle and recommended we continue to hold this line. Mr. Dulles approved.

Mr. Becker:

a. Noted the first item on page 3 in today's CIB and suggested that CIA consider sending a representative to the Five-power Conference mentioned therein.

b. Stated that a report had been received that the Finnish tanker, Wilma, had been stopped 18 miles off Singapore.

c. Asked Mr. Dulles if he desired to present the Latin American briefing at the next NSC Meeting. A/DCI indicated that, in all probability, he did; however, we should also consider a short briefing on the effects of the Soviet break with the Israelis.

25X1 d. Stated that [redacted] Security had brought to his attention an 25X1 ICIS paper on exchange of information [redacted] and noted that this paper also would be of interest to DDP.
